

SOUTH FLORIDA EYE INSTITUTE

FULL EYE CARE FACILITY

AMANDA AMBERG, O.D.

Board-Certified Optometrist, External Ocular Disease, Dry Eye Syndrome

Dr. Amanda Amberg is a board-certified optometric physician practicing full scope medical and comprehensive optometry including diagnosis and management of retinal conditions, glaucoma, dry eye, and anterior segment conditions. Dr. Amberg is also one of the few eye care practitioners in South Florida experienced with myopia management, fitting specialty contact lenses and pediatric eye exams. Dr. Amberg is a South Florida native and has worked in private practices throughout the community.

She received her Bachelor of Science in Biology from Nova Southeastern University. After graduation, she went on to continue her professional education and received her Bachelor of Vision Science and Doctorate of Optometry from Nova Southeastern University, College of Optometry. Dr. Amberg then completed internships at CorrectVision Laser Institute in Hollywood, Florida and the West Palm Beach VA Hospital, West Palm Beach, Florida where she expanded her medical eye training.

Dr. Amberg is also nationally recognized as a Key Opinion Leader on ocular allergy and continues to educate her peers about the latest advancements in care. She is an active member of the American Optometric Association, Florida Optometric Association, American Academy of Orthokeratology and Myopia Control, and Scleral Lens Society. In 2023, Dr Amberg was nominated as 2023 America's Best Optometrists by Newsweek # 31-200:
